

Cockeysville, MD, September 16, 2010 PRESS RELEASE –

All-Pro Placement, Service, Inc. (“All-Pro”) a Maryland based professional recruiting and staffing firm, has announced that they have received their 8(a) Certification from the Small Business Association (SBA). Inclusion in this program provides All Pro with greater access to the resources necessary to ensure the growth and development of the company.

With this recent certification, All-Pro, is now in a favorable position to provide talent management, staffing and recruiting services to the Federal Government. All-Pro has consistently been on a path of growth; receiving rankings from the Baltimore Business Journal as one of the Largest Placement Firms in Maryland for many consecutive years in a row. The recent 8(a) certification will assist in continuing the strong growth trend for the future.

Located close to downtown Baltimore, Aberdeen, Fort Meade and Washington DC; All-Pro is perfectly situated to provide recruiting and staffing services to agencies and branches of the Federal Government.

“Currently, poised as local provider of staffing and recruiting the region, All-Pro Placement is now able to more effectively provide our services to the Federal Government. We have the 8(a) Certification to help us continue our growth into the Federal market. We are forecasting continued strong growth numbers into the upcoming years” said Jennifer Quinn, Vice President.
